Accordion Duo Slated

The celebrated Palmer-Hughes accordion duo will make a first Los Angeles appearance with a concert and workshop in the Pepperdine college auditorium, 1121 W. 79th st., at 2 p.m. Sunday afternoon, November 3, under the auspices of the California Chapter of the Accordion Teachers Guild, announces Mrs. Bettie Thomas, Torrance representative.

The concert is part of the Guild's campaign to demonstrate improved standards of performance and instruction in the accordion field.

TO RESIDE IN WALTERIA

Miller Anderson Married In Walteria Baptist Church

The First Baptist church of Walteria was the setting for the wedding of Lynda Marie Miller, to Clifford Wayne Anderson, on October 12, at 8 p.m.

She is the daughter of Mrs. Evelyn Miller, Dallas, Texas, and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Anderson, 23856 Ward st., Walteria.

The bride was escorted to the altar by the father of the bridegroom and Rev. L. P. Hustad read the double ring marriage service.

For the ceremony she wore an ankle length gown of satin and tulle, the fitted bodice had long pointed sleeves and lace panels decorated the slightly bouffant skirt. She wore a fingertip illusion veil and carried a bouquet of white carnations and orchids.

Matron of honor, Linda Fish, wore an orchid nylon gown and carried a bouquet of pale pink carnations. Cindy Furlong flower girl, wore a blue nylon dress and carried pink rosebuds. Jerry Fish was best man, and ushers were Russell Furlong, Bob Burns, and Douglas Anderson, who is a brother of the bridegroom. Jimmy, another brother, was candlelighter.
